

Parent Club Notes

Nov 1, 2007

6:30 Parent club with Susan Emerson

1. Update on fire: Praise for the staff, families, and students for the Herculean effort in assisting the Red Cross with over 2,000 evacuees. Red Cross workers couldn't say enough about the support they got from all of EHS people, particularly the custodial crew who worked round the clock, with few breaks. Students assisted with taking care of the animals and translating among other tasks.
2. Homecoming: No games will be made up. Homecoming game is Nov, 9 and the dance is Nov. 10 vs. San Pasqual
CIF playoffs begin next week: Girls volleyball should start next Wed at home.
Thursday: Assembly for Veteran's Day, Senior BBQ and picture
Friday: Homecoming assembly and game. It will also be Senior Night at the game.
Saturday: Homecoming Dance
3. College fair will not be rescheduled. The District is checking county-wide to see if other schools are having college fairs that parents/students may want to attend.
4. Nov. 7: minimum day. Staff is reviewing WASC progress. Any parent interested in attending is welcome. Contact the office.
